WELCOME TO ROUND ROCK THE SPORTS CAPITAL OF TEXAS.

Everything's Bigger In Texas.

And everything's better in Round Rock. Our city holds the distinct title of "Sports Capital of Texas" for amateur, youth and recreational sports. Nothing can promise a hit like the Sports Capital of Texas. Gear up and tackle the stylish Round Rock Premium Outlets and contemporary IKEA. Or, slide head first into the Rock 'N River Family Aquatic Center.

If golf is the name of your game, come out swinging on one of our unique 18-hole courses. If not, we've got the bases covered at the Dell Diamond, home to the Round Rock Express. And when you're ready for some downtime, warm up the benches at one of our many tasty restaurants.

Once you're stuffed, dodge the crowd and catch some Z's at one of our inviting hotels. Round Rock is a perfect city for visitors to have fun! The Round Rock Convention and Visitors Bureau is your one-stop resource in planning your next sporting event, meeting or vacation.

We are excited to assist you with your Sports Capital of Texas game plan. Game On!

ATTRACTIONS MORE FUN THAN YOU CAN SHAKE A STICK, BAT, CLUB OR RACQUET AT.

Chisholm Trail Crossing Park

500 Chisholm Trail Rd. • Round Rock, Texas 78681

The Chisholm Trail Crossing Park provides visitors with a simulated scene of Round Rock's historical role in the Chisholm Cattle Drive. Commemorative plaques in the park tell of the history of Round Rock. The bronze sculptures of 4 steers and pioneer woman, Hattie Cluck, and her son, Emmitt, were commissioned by the City through generous donations from Round Rock residents. The sculptures depict Round Rock's history as a crossing location along the Chisholm Trail. The famous 'round rock' is near the park in the Brushy Creek. The limestone crossing is marked with ruts from the wagons that crossed while on the cattle drive.

Flix Brewhouse

2200 S. IH-35 #B • Round Rock, TX 78681
www.flixbrewhouse.com • 512.238.0938

Flix Brewhouse by Galaxy is the only first-run movie theatre to incorporate a fully functioning microbrewery. All six of our stadium seating "dining rooms" are outfitted with the latest high-definition digital projection and sound technologies. The Flix Mix lobby bar and cafe is open seven days a week to public, no ticket required, so you can come in and grab a bite to eat or have a locally brewed beer anytime!

Forest Creek Golf Club

99 Twin Ridge Pkwy. • Round Rock, TX 78664
www.ForestCreek.com • 512.388.2874

The initial wonder of this course, which opened in 1991, was its forest-like setting. Although residential development has taken care of some of that this course in Round Rock, features an 8,000-square foot putting green, a practice green with two greenside bunkers and a three-tiered driving range. It also includes water hazards in play and about 60 sand bunkers. Other amenities include beverage cart, snack bar and a beer-only bar.

Since 1926, the famous “orange donuts” have rolled out of the bakery by the dozens. Monday-Saturday: 4 a.m.–3 p.m.; Sunday: 4 a.m.–2 p.m.; Drive-Thru (Everyday): 4 a.m.–8 p.m.

Round Rock Memorial Park & The Bluff

600 Lee St. • Round Rock, TX 78664
www.RoundRockTexas.gov/ParksAndRec • 512.218.5540

Memorial Park is a large centrally-located community park with several historical features, a commemorative WWII torpedo and informative plaques. This linear shaped park runs along Brushy Creek and is home to geese & ducks that love to be fed from the park benches. The picnic tables & benches are well shaded by large oak trees. Trails follow along the creek throughout the whole park and lead over to the round rock, for which the city is named, and to the Chisholm Trail Crossing Park.

Round Rock Symphony

www.RoundRockSymphony.org • 512.264.5368

The Round Rock Symphony’s mission is to musically enrich the greater Round Rock community by presenting affordable and accessible symphonic concerts and promote the understanding and appreciation of symphonic music by encouraging and educating children and new audiences. The Round Rock Symphony performs 4–6 programs per year of traditional orchestral repertoire, new music, pops repertoire and concerts for schools & special occasions.

Round Rock Water Tower

78 Round Rock Ave. • Georgetown, TX 78664

Watertower Park is located near downtown Round Rock. The old water tower is a Round Rock landmark that was one of the original water towers for Round Rock. The City decorates the water tower with Christmas lights every December.

Teravista Golf Club

4333 Teravista Club Dr. • Round Rock, TX 78664
www.TeravistaGolf.com • 512.651.9850

Teravista has taken daily fee golf in Round Rock/Austin to a new level. Not only is the course in great shape from tee to green, but the service is one of the best in the Round Rock area. The Eagle managed course offers challenging Par 3s with both long & short Par 4s, which will have you playing almost every club in your bag. If a full round of 18 isn’t your game, check out the terrific practice facilities.

The Round Rock Express

3400 E. Palm Valley Blvd. • Round Rock, TX 78664
www.RoundRockExpress.com • 512.255.BALL

As the home of the Round Rock Express (the AAA affiliate of the Texas Rangers), the Dell Diamond is a facility that features numerous amenities for fan comfort & enjoyment. The stadium has been designed to allow amazing close-up views of the action. Fans seated on the first row behind home plate are actually closer to home plate than the pitchers mound. Some fans seated down either the first or third base line are less than 50 feet from the first & third-base line. The Dell Diamond is also the site for amateur sporting events, musical concerts, craft shows and other events held year-round.

The Round Rock at Brushy Creek

654 Chisholm Trail Rd. • Round Rock, TX 78681

In 1851 a small town was established along the banks of the Brushy Creek. In 1854 it was given the name Round Rock in tribute to the large round rock situated in the creek which marked a low-water crossing area for wagons and cattle.
